Dear Brother Franklin:

Your recent letter provoked a large measure of nostalgia as I recounted many of our pleasant and rewarding experiences in the A.C.C. McGarvey program. I have received the benefit of two years maturity since that time and hope that my life has taken a more realistic direction.

I was thrilled to learn of your work in Wyoming. It certainly is a mission field, and you have our prayers as you pursue your activities. I know of no man better qualified to do a successful work in the mission field than you. Please be assured of our continuing interest in you and the church there.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
